CASE ANALYSIS

Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards in Turkey

Recent Decision of the Ankara Commercial Court of First Instance

The recognition and enforcement of international arbitral awards in Turkey has long been a matter of concern across jurisdictions. However, Turkey offers a robust legal framework supported by consistent judicial practice. This case analysis examines a recent decision of the Ankara Commercial Court of First Instance, which confirmed the enforcement of a foreign arbitral award rendered by the Dubai International Arbitration Centre (DIAC).

CASE DETAILS

Court:
Ankara Commercial Court of First Instance

Subject:
Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Award

Arbitration Centre:
Dubai International Arbitration Centre (DIAC)

Outcome:
Enforcement Granted

BACKGROUND

The dispute arose from a commercial relationship between the parties and was resolved through arbitration under the DIAC Rules. The arbitral tribunal rendered an award in favor of the claimant.

Following the award, the claimant applied to the Ankara Commercial Court for its recognition and enforcement in Turkey.

LEGAL ANALYSIS

The Court assessed the request under the New York Convention and the relevant provisions of Turkish law.

It concluded that none of the grounds for refusal were present.

In particular, the Court found no violation of Turkish public policy and confirmed that the arbitral proceedings complied with due process standards.

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- Turkey maintains a pro-enforcement approach.
- Judicial practice aligns with international conventions.
- No public policy violation = enforcement likely.
- DIAC awards are effectively enforceable in Turkey.

CONCLUSION

This decision reaffirms Turkey's position as a reliable and arbitration-friendly jurisdiction for the recognition and enforcement of foreign arbitral awards, strengthening legal certainty for international investors and commercial actors.

INTERNATIONAL CLIENT EXPERIENCES

“ Petra Mutlu

I had been searching for a suitable law firm to apply for Turkish citizenship for my son for some time. As a Turkish woman born and raised in Germany, I am unfamiliar with such processes in Turkey and speak very little Turkish. Fortunately, I found the law firm Pi Legal Consultancy. From the very first conversation, my impression was very positive: I explained our case in a video call and received very competent information and a clear proposal for the process with a fair and, above all, transparent price. For a year and a half, Pi Legal Consultancy accompanied my son and me through all the steps of obtaining the necessary documents, submitting them and applying for Turkish citizenship for my son. We have now received news that the application has been approved and we are very happy about this success. I can wholeheartedly recommend Pi Legal Consultancy as a highly competent and trustworthy partner in legal matters. A big thank you to Pi Legal Consultancy for their support!
